THE DEMONSTRATION IS OPEN TO EVERYONE!

That said, a strong police presence is expected.

There may be police checkpoints on the way to the march, so be mindful (check the Guide Anti-rep) about what you bring.

Police will be identifiable by numbers worn visibly on their uniforms. If you see anything concerning, don't hesitate to take photos or videos of their activities, without interfering or putting yourself in danger.

A NOTE ON MASKS

Obsessed with 'security', the authorities have decided to forbid any accessory that covers the face, INCLUDING MASKS (yes, even surgical and N95)!

The Grève Féministe is disgusted by this authoritarian decision, which infringes on our rights to protect ourselves from potential police violence and limits the ability of vulnerable or immunocompromised people to protest safely.

MAKING OUR VOICES HEARD WHILE KEEPING IT SAFE, INCLUSIVE AND FESTIVE

Aggressive or oppressive behavior is not tolerated at our events. We reserve the right to exclude from our bloc any person who does not subscribe to the values of the Grève Féministe.

Thank you for being respectful of the people around you.

If you feel unsafe, find a member of the team in yellow vests; they're there for you and can help.
